

Bobby Ingram

Director, Professional Recruiting
Veritas Partners

Biography

Bobby Ingram is a Director of Professional Recruiting with Veritas Partners.

Bobby brings over 15 years of experience in the recruiting and staffing industry including working within a variety of skill set verticals and geographic markets. Bobby was recruited by Atlanta based firstPRO, Inc in 2005 upon completing his undergrad where he spent 7 years as a top performer and progressed to the Senior Manager level. In 2010, Bobby helped lead a strategic company reorganization playing an instrumental role in the successful sale of firstPRO's largest Atlanta based division. In 2012, Bobby was a co-founder of PeopleNET Search in Atlanta, GA, a successful startup executive search firm. In 2013, Bobby rejoined firstPRO as their Managing Partner of all Philadelphia operations where he spent the next six years leading the organization through rapid growth and expansion as well as serving as an industry expert within the Philadelphia media and business community. Upon relocating with his family to the state of Maryland, Bobby left firstPRO in 2019 in order to identify a high-performance local firm, joining Veritas Partners. Bobby has a passion for servicing both active and passive candidates as well as partnering with organizations on identifying top talent. He has recruiting expertise across the Accounting & Finance, Information Technology, and Supply Chain sectors including developing and leading teams in each.

Bobby was raised in Virginia Beach, VA and attended Embry-Riddle University on a wrestling scholarship where he studied Aeronautical Science and the College of Charleston where he graduated Magna Cum Laude with a B.S. in Industrial Psychology. Bobby lives in Annapolis with his wife and three daughters.
